

LITTLE DATA. NO DATA. BIG CELEBRATION.

A panel discussion, book signing, and celebration for Christine Borgman's new book.

Feb. 25, 2015 | 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

YRL Presentation Room 11348

Join the UCLA Department of Information Studies and the UCLA Library as we celebrate and host an exclusive book signing for Professor Christine Borgman's newest book, Big Data, Little Data, No Data: Scholarship in the Networked World, published February 1, 2015.

Speakers include:

Jonathan Furner, Chair, Department of Information Studies
Christine Borgman, Professor & Presidential Chair in Information Studies
Virginia Steel, University Librarian
Kent Wada, Strategic IT Policy and Chief Privacy Officer
Janice Reiff, Professor of History and Chair, Academic Senate, 2013-14

Free admission. Open to the public.
Light refreshments will be provided.

To RSVP or for more information, please email events@gseis.ucla.edu or call or at (310) 206-0375.

